Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office.

HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, May 1, 1823.

Grand State Lottery.

The drawing of this splendid scheme will commence on the 28th of the present month, (MAY) and will be entirely completed in Twenty drawings only, under the superintendence of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor and Council. The magnitude of the great capital prize of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, is in itself a sufficient attraction and importance to adventurers without referring at all to the other capitals of 20,000—2 of 10,000—2 of 5,000 dollars, &c. &c. contained in the scheme which we continue to publish on the opposite page.

☞ In this Lottery, as in the last, the Prizes only will be drawn. The arrangement is very popular, because highly advantageous to the adventurer, as it gives him a chance for every prize in the lottery, while it will be impossible for him to draw a Blank, until the whole of the prizes are out; and consequently not until he has run the chance of gaining some one of the capital or minor prizes in the scheme—for as nothing but the prizes are to be drawn, whatever numbers should come out with them must be prizes; if large, the adventurer will of course realize his good fortune; if small, then he will be enabled to renew his chance for the remaining prizes at a small expense, and again without any risk of drawing a Blank until after all the capitals are awarded, which in the mean time he stands his full chance to obtain.

The Drawing will commence on the 28th of THIS MONTH, as heretofore announced: Tickets and Shares can be had at the following rates, being extremely low, compared with the magnificence of the Capitals in the scheme.

Whole Tickets, $12 00	Quarters, - - $3 00
Halves, - - - - 6 00	Eighths, - - 1 50

☞ Orders from any part of the United States, by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the cash or prize tickets in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the most prompt and punctual attention, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, Jr. Baltimore.

The Monument Lottery.

We continue the scheme of this patriotic Lottery on our third page—The Drawing will commence on WEDNESDAY AFTER NEXT the 14th inst. This lottery is interesting, and it will be observed that on the very first day of the drawing, the whole of the prizes in the scheme will be floating except the 20,000 and one of the 10,000's, which gives a fine opportunity to early adventurers, especially as the scheme is arranged for the drawing of the prizes only, the same as in the Grand State Lottery, and on the same advantageous principle.

Whole Tickets, $10 00	Quarters, - - $2 50
Halves, - - - - 5 00	Eighths, - - 1 25

☞ ORDERS, as heretofore, from any part of the United States, will meet the most prompt attention, addressed to J. I. COHEN, Jr. Sec'y. Baltimore.

Mr. Charles I. Dibrell, of Lynchburg in Campbell county, Virginia, is the owner of the Capital Prize of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, which was sold at COHEN'S OFFICE in the last State Lottery.

Important to Adventurers.

In order to give the earliest information to adventurers of the result of their investments in the Grand STATE and MONUMENT Lotteries, the Official lists of the drawings will be published in this paper, and will be regularly furnished gratis to those who purchase their tickets at COHEN'S OFFICE.

The great popularity acquired by the Baltimore lotteries in every section of the Union, has been in a great degree owing (independently of the usual brilliancy of the schemes) to the expedition of completing and the PROMPTNESS and PUNCTUALITY in THE PAYMENT OF THE PRIZES.

On the present occasion we have only to remark, that for all prizes sold at COHEN'S OFFICE, in either the Grand State or the Monument Lotteries; the CASH can be had the moment they are drawn, and we anticipate the same ASTONISHING LUCK in distributing the capital prizes, which has so eminently distinguished our office.

NEXT CATTLE SHOW.

At the meeting of the Maryland Agricultural Society yesterday (agreeably to public notice,) we understand it was decided to hold their next and succeeding Cattle Shows in the autumn. The day and the list of premiums amounting to $500 in value will be announced by the Committee of arrangement in the course of the next week. The Cattle Show for the Eastern Shore it is supposed will be held nearly about the same time to suit the convenience of the two shores respectively.

WEST'S PORTRAIT.—The celebrated Portrait of our countryman, Mr. WEST, by Sir Thomas Lawrence, his successor as President of the Royal Academy of Fine Arts, is now exhibiting in Philadelphia. It was exhibited in the British Metropolis in 1821, with the utmost success, and is described in letters received at New York from eminent painters in London, as one of the finest specimens ever produced in the art of portrait painting. —West is represented in it, at full length, in the act of delivering his last lecture at the Academy, with a roll of paper in his left hand, while his right rests on a small picture on an easel; the Cartoon of the death of Ananias after Raphael:—The back ground is a rich crimson curtain. West himself, in writing to the Academy of Fine Arts, in New York, to which the portrait belongs, observed—"Sir Thomas Lawrence has been more successful in the likeness and the high quality of its painting, than any head he has ever before finished."

Foreign Intelligence

The latest dates from Europe are English—to the 15th March; French to the 16th, and from Spain to the 14th—Hostilities between France and Spain had not actually commenced, but the period for operations, seemed fast progressing. The Duc D'Angoulême, commander in chief of the French Divisions, had left Paris on the 15th March, for the northeast frontier of Spain and thence to Bayonne.

In the French Chamber of Deputies, violent proceedings had taken place in the course of the debates on Spanish affairs. M. Manuel, the leader of the opposition to the ruling party, had been formally expelled, and on an attempt the next day to resume his seat, was forcibly dragged from the Chamber by a detachment of gens d'armes, under orders from the President. The most "intense agitation" followed these proceedings.

The most extensive preparations were about being made at Bayonne for the immediate commencement of hostilities; and corresponding movements were observable on the other side of the frontier.

Portugal, it would seem, had determined to make common cause with Spain in the event of the hostile invasion of the territory of the latter.

In England, the popular sympathy in favour of the Spanish cause was on the increase; and had recently been loudly manifested on the occasion of a dinner given to the ambassadors of Spain and Portugal, at which 400 noblemen and gentlemen were present—and numbers were excluded for want of room, who had offered as much as £50 for admission. As the guests retired, they were saluted by an immense assemblage of people with continued cheers and cries of "Spain forever"—"The Spanish cause"—"Down with the Holy Alliance." &c.

Miscellaneous Intelligence.

FREDERICKTOWNS, Md. April 16.

For the last few weeks, the stages from Frederick to Baltimore run every day, except Saturday—and we are pleased to find they have this week commenced carrying a daily mail, so that we have now six mails a week to and from Baltimore, instead of three as by the former arrangement. For this accommodation, the public are indebted to the liberality of the proprietors of the stages, as we understand they receive no extra compensation for the three additional mails per week.—Herald.

The Mail Stages from Hagerstown to Baltimore, also run six times a week, and the Post Master General has ordered the mail to and from Baltimore to go by every stage.

Fire at Erie (Penn.)—The new Court House at Erie, Penn.) just finished at the cost of $17,000, with all the contents of the offices of the prothonotary, register, clerks of the court, and county commissioners, was destroyed by fire on the morning of the 23d ult.

Remarkable Passage.—The Liverpool papers mention the arrival at that place, on the 2d March, of the ship Corsair, capt. Petrie, from Charleston. The Corsair sailed from Charleston on the 12th of February, consequently only 17 or at most 18 days are given for her arrival in England, if it be correctly reported—a passage, for shortness, very seldom equalled from any port in the United States.

Honour to La Fayette.—The President of the United States, in commemoration of the distinguished services of major general La Fayette, during the revolutionary war, has directed that the fortress recently erected at the Narrows, N. Y. and hitherto called Fort Diamond, shall hereafter be known by the name of Fort La Fayette. The ceremony, in conformity thereto, took place on the 15th inst.

A brig has arrived at New Bedford from a whaling voyage to the West Indies. Her crew are all colored persons, except the cook. On the 24th ult an affray took place between Francis Ford, an officer, and Moses Sipple, a seaman, which ended in the death of the former, who was thrown overboard, and drowned. Sipple was immediately put in irons, and is now in jail in New Bedford, awaiting his trial.—Salem Gaz.

The American schooner Curlew, from Bath, (Me.) in order to avoid the duties imposed by the British Navigation Law, on live stock, had arrived at Barbadoes, with a cargo of dead meat, consisting of quarters of Beef, Mutton &c. packed in ice.

A Young Smoker.—There is a child living in Carlisle at the age of 23 months only, which is so much attached to a pipe of tobacco, that its mother, in order to appease its crying, frequently grants it the indulgence, and it apparently enjoys the tobacco without causing the least sickness.
